

True Public Safety Harms No One. Racial Profiling Harms Everyone.

The image above from 2015 MLK Day at Historic Ebenezer Baptist Church reflects the link between movements past and present. Movements demanding realization of the promise of equity in treatment under the law as expressed in the rise of

#BlackLivesMatter | #AllLivesMatter.

There is nothing more frustrating than someone believing something about you, you know is not true. Frustration is compounded when that person acts on this misconception in a manner that causes injury or harm. Harm is always the outcome when racial profiling drives the decisions that people make in interactions that would otherwise be harmless.

Join the Conversation

What:

A Better Path to Public Safety
Panel and Discussion

When: Saturday, March 14, 2015 at 1:00 pm

Where: SF Bayview Library, 5075 3rd Street, SF, CA

ar@thirdtraditionsfoundation.org

This is not a Library Sponsored Program